Preface

The superiority of this book lies in the number and variety of selections and in their quality and arrangements. There are many new and singable Gospel songs which have a message and a few choice secular numbers. The selections have been chosen with the co-operation of several recognized leaders of singing among men.

Many of the arrangements have been made by Dr. Daniel Protheroe, who has taken deep personal interest in the work. He is one of the best qualified men in the world for arranging them, and they will be found attractive, with variety and melody in the parts, and full and pleasing harmony. He is one of the most efficient and constructive adjudicators in Musical Festivals, and for many years he has been conductor of the well-known volunteer choir of Central Church, Chicago. His services are in constant demand as leader of great choruses. We are fortunate in having his co-operation.

The helpful topical index has been prepared by Mr. LaMotte Wells.

We hope the book will encourage more singing among men. Your suggestive criticisms are solicited.

1. It came up - on the mid-night clear, That glo - rious song of old,
2. Still thro' the clo - ven skies they come With peace-ful wings un - furled,
3. Yet with the woes of sin and strife The world hath suf - fered long;
4. For lo! the days are has-t'ning on By proph-et - bards fore - told,
From an - gels bend-ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold;
And still their heav'n-ly mu - sic floats O'er all the wea - ry world;
Be - neath the an - gel - strain have rolled Two thou-sand years of wrong;
When with the ev - er - cir - cling years Comes round the age of gold;
"Peace on the earth, good-will to men, From heav'n's all-gra-cious King:"
A - bove its sad and low - ly plains They bend on hov - 'ring wing,
And man, at war with man, hears not The words of peace they bring:
When peace shall o - ver all the earth Its an - cient splen-dors fling,
The world in sol - emn still - ness lay To hear the an - gels sing.
And ev - er o'er its Ba - bel sounds The bless - ed an - gels sing.
O hush the noise, ye men of strife, And hear the an - gels sing.
And the whole world send back the song Which now the an - gels sing.

1. I know not how such love could be, That Je-sus chose to die for me,

For one who far from Him had strayed, So oft His voice had dis-o-beyed.
His par-don and rich gifts to bring, To give me heir-ship with my King.
He found me, help-less, guilt-y lost,— He paid the price—how great the cost!
His grace will keep me in the way, And lead me in-to per-fect day.

3 No more shall they in bondage toil,
Let them come out with Egypt's spoil.

4 When Israel out of Egypt came,
And left the proud oppressive land.

5 O, 'twas a dark and dismal night,
When Moses led the Israelites.

6 'Twas good old Moses, and Aaron, too,
'Twas they that led the armies through.

7 The Lord told Moses what to do,
To lead the children of Israel through.

8 O come along, Moses, you'll not get lost,
Stretch out your rod and come across.

9 As Israel stood by the water side,
At the command of God it did divide.

10 When they had reached the other shore,
They sang the song of triumph o'er.

11 Pharaoh said he would go across,
But Pharaoh and his host were lost.

12 O Moses, the clouds shall clear the way,
A fire by night, a shade by day.

13 You'll not get lost in the wilderness,
With a lighted candle in your breast.

14 Jordan shall stand up like a wall,
And the walls of Jericho shall fall.

15 Your foes shall not before you stand,
And you'll possess fair Canaan's land.

16 'Twas just about in harvest-time,
When Joshua led his host divine.

17 O let us all from bondage flee,
And let us all in Christ be free.

18 We need not always weep and moan,
And wear these slavery chains forlorn.
